Terms and Conditions:

For live virtual classes, you must present your state issued ID or driver's license to the instructor during attendance. You must have a camera and audio as we need to be able to see and hear you at all times during class. If you are not visible, the instructor reserves the right to close you out of the class. In the event you are closed out of class, you will not be re-admitted, you will not receive credit for the class. You will need to make up any missed class hours (dates TBD). Class registration fees are non-refundable.

Upon completion of course and all make up classes (if applicable), you will be required to take the final exam in person at our office in Derby. After obtaining a passing grade (70 for salespersons/75 for brokers) you will be able to apply to take the state licensing test.
